

With more than 280 lawyers and professionals, Holland & Knight's Real Estate Section is one of the largest of any law firm in the United States. Our Real Estate lawyers are well-versed in a wide range of matters related to the ownership or investment in real property, including purchase and sale contracts, leases, construction contracts, management and listing agreements, financing documents and other negotiations and disputes. They have experience in the acquisition, development, disposition, leasing and financing of commercial, retail, residential and planned development, timeshare and hospitality/resort, industrial, mixed-use and public housing projects. As informed advisors, Holland & Knight counsels and assists clients in all aspects of the management of their property values and costs, sites and facilities, subletting, leasing, and other real estate acquisition and disposition issues.

Holland & Knight was placed among an exclusive group of firms recommended by corporate counsel, in an unprompted manner, for superior client service for more than 15 consecutive years in BTI Consulting Group's 2018 "Most Recommended Law Firms" report. The firm was also named to the 2018 BTI Client Service A-Team.
